

I've been reading the comments about the possible change to the Wisconsin No Call List. Please don't change the rules to this list! For the first time in years, my phone isn't constantly ringing during dinner, etc., with offers to buy vacations, buy life insurance, or take out a loan.